It was a pleasure to advocate for the Pilot Int'l Club; Mt. Pleasant, Texas this morning. Agenda Item #5; Pilot Monument Update was presented, considered and approved unanimously by the Commissioners. Ms. Lydia Grimes addressed the Commissioners on behalf of the Pilot's of Mt. Pleasant. Ms. Grimes noted that the changes proposed would add "Desert Storm" and "Global War on Terrorism" to the existing monument inscription. Thank You Pilot Club for your involvement in our community.

Agenda Item #5; May 14, 2018:
TCHC; Ch- Steve Austin
Advocating to support Pilot Club request to update monument.

Ms. Lydia Grimes; Pilot Club Mt. Pleasant, Texas, Delegate

PILOTS nears completion of their Veteran Military Service Monument update project. Project Committee Chair, Betty Reese has the lead on this effort. The stone is located just east of the South Courthouse Entrance and it covers WW II, Korea, Vietnam and Persian Gulf, shown in photo just right of the South entrance of the Titus County Courthouse. The group plans to broaden the scope of the time frames recognized., which will include Desert Storm and Global War on Terrorism. John Fitch of Fitch Memorials/Martus Stone is also assisting, along with the VSO with the project. Thanks, on behalf of all Titus County Veterans. VSO and TCHC Ch-Steve Austin
